CARW Academy presents the Lunch & Learn Series, a monthly professional development luncheon. Each month CARW will feature a stimulating discussion on trending industry topics lead by knowledable and experienced presenters.

December Luncheon Topic:
Tax Issues for Troubled Real Estate

Featuring:
Dan Welytok, von Briesen & Roper, s.c.

Dan Welytok has been practicing law since 1987. Dan's practice focuses on helping management achieve practical results in all aspects of business. He assists clients with tax issues, acquisitions and divestments, capital structuring, financing, corporate governance, information technology, licensing and distribution, regulatory and compliance issues, labor and employee benefits matters, and dispute resolution. Dan represents clients before the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Labor and other Federal and state regulatory authorities on audits, controversies and compliance issues. He advises nonprofit and tax-favored organizations on business and tax matters including structural and cooperative arrangements, joint ventures, unrelated business income, grant making, public awareness campaigns and fundraising activities.
