Op-ed: A letter from CARW Chairman Curt Pitzen and other CARW leaders - Support the Foxconn deal

As commercial real estate professionals, we work directly with business executives and owners on making decisions about where to locate their operations every day. Appropriate site selection for a business is an art form that takes into account many different factors, including workforce availability, dependable infrastructure and the time needed to get a shovel in the ground. ...Read more.

Driverless Cars and the Impact on Commercial Real Estate.

There's a lot of buzz about driverless vehicles reshaping the commercial real estate landscape. Multiple articles predict mass adoption of driverless technology in the next two to three years. Industry experts forecast massive shifts in road use and associated transportation related to real estate that anticipate curtailed needs and, in some cases, elimination of certain property types. Such predictions have the potential to devastate property values. ... Read more.
