

Update: Basel III and Tax Issues with Congresswoman Gwen Moore

CARW Members along with GMAR members met with Congresswoman Gwen Moore regarding proposed tax reform. Commercial issues discussion was led by Ben Adank of SARA Investment Real Estate (CARW RPAC Chair). Gwen has been a strong supporter of real estate issues and continues to engage in community betterment and business development matters. Of interest to Congresswoman Moore, is the issue ...Read more.

You Spoke: We're Listening | Membership Survey Results

In December, CARW conducted a members survey. It's usually a good idea to check in with members every few years or so, to see if strategies are working, programs are sticking, and benefits are resonating. We asked about programming, communication, branding, benefits and more. Big thanks to those who completed the survey - one lucky winner ...Read more.

CARW Legislative Update | Dark Store | TIF | Tax Reform

The 2017 legislative session has officially begun. Our association has engaged on a variety of issues on both a local and national level. Through meetings with State and Federal law makers, we have gained insights and information about where our industry will stand with both the new administration in Washington DC, and how it will fare with regard to the State ...
