Big 6 Tax Reform Proposal - What's In It and What Does it Mean for Commercial Real Estate

In late September, a framework for comprehensive tax reform was released. The overarching theme of the framework was to simplify the tax code. The Big 6 "Tax Reform Unified Framework" is being touted as a way to cut taxes for the middle class by compressing the tax brackets. In a statement by Jeffrey DeBoer, the CEO for the Real Estate ... Read more.

Coalition of Milwaukee-Waukesha Business and Community Leaders Urge WisDOT to Reconsider Position on I-94 East-West

We have been working with you on advocacy for the continued enumeration of the I-94 East-West corridor since earlier this year. Our efforts have included meetings and outreach to legislators, public advocacy, op-eds, presentations and more. Our work with a regional coalition of associations, businesses, and policy leaders, called I-94 Econ Connect (www.i94econconnect.com), has helped to build strong messaging and aligned ...Read more.

Emerging from Chicago's Shadow, or entering into its Orbit - 2017 BizTimes Conference

We are proud to partner and support the BizTimes Commercial Real Estate Conference on November 17th at the ICC from 7:30 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. Milwaukee has always been overshadowed by The Windy City. But in many ways the massive Chicago region's proximity has been an asset to southeastern Wisconsin. Perhaps that has never been more true, as the Milwaukee...Read more.

Outlook Remains Bright for Commercial Real Estate Despite Price Plateau

Commercial real estate price growth in large markets is expected to flatten over the next year, but strong leasing demand and investor appetite in smaller markets should keep the sector on solid ground, according to the latest National Association of Realtors® quarterly commercial real estate forecast. ...Read More.
