

2017 Property Values and Taxes in Southeast Wisconsin | PPF Annual Review

CARW proudly supported the 2017 Public Policy Forum Research report on the impact of property taxes on our communities and home values. Not only that, through our State association we advocate for levy limits and low property taxes. The report measures trends in property values and examines how they impact the capacity of local governments and school districts to raise ...Read more.

Tax Incentives for Preserving Historic Properties

State of Wisconsin Historic Tax Credit legislation is nearly to the Governor's desk. Your advocacy efforts encouraged members of Joint Finance to remove the Governor's program cap, while including a $5 million / per project cap beginning in July 2018. If this holds, it will certainly be considered a victory for the HTC program in Wisconsin, which was in danger ... Read more.

CARW Featured in Business Journal Panel "Making Buildings Better: What's being done Locally to Reduce Energy Consumption"

CARW President Tracy Johnson, served as moderator for a Business Journal panel on energy efficiency. Panelists included Mark Nicholson of Two-Fifty East Wisconsin and Bill Jackson from Johnson Controls. The panel focused on buildings as one of the primary consumers of energy. They explored ways to reduce energy costs to benefit the climate and free up money for more productive ... Read more.
