

Campaign to Put the I-94 East-West Back in the Budget

While the JFC proposal does not include funding for the I 94 E/W, we are still advocating for its enumeration. As part of an active coalition, CARW recently participated in a press conference with Waukesha

County Executive Paul Farrow, MMAC VP of Government Affairs, Steve Baas, and Waukesha County Business Alliance Policy Chair, Jeff Hoffman. They, and others, have been ...Read more.

Call For Action | Flood Insurance Program Expiring Soon

The National Flood Insurance Program is now less than one month away from expiration, raising concerns that homeowners, consumers, and commercial property owners could soon find themselves either unprotected or unable to get a mortgage. In July, the National Association of Realtors® announced it had reached an agreement with the U.S. House Financial Services Committee on key legislation to reauthorize ...Read more.

Triple-Net Lease \(Walgreens\) Bill | Status Update

We have been monitoring two bills over the past few months that were formally introduced in early summer and heard before both, Assembly and Senate committees. The bills relate to AB 386 / SB 292 (Dark Store) and AB 387 / SB 291 (Reversing the Walgreens v. City of Madison decision). Our CARW policy committee has discussed this, and the WRA policy committee is officially 'neutral' ...Read more.

EB-5 – Reauthorization Pending September 30th | Balancing Risks with Rewards

For a quarter century, the EB-5 Visa Program has helped finance economic development projects across America, sparking job growth and business investment in cities, suburbs, and rural regions throughout the U.S.—all at no cost to the taxpayer. EB-5-funded projects span a diverse range of regions and industries, from charter schools in Utah and manufacturing plants in South Carolina, to mixed-use commercial property in downtown Washington, DC. ...Read more.
